*The VWPC Safety Team has installed security cameras on the church property to keep our campus safe during worship and when the pastor is alone in the building. The security cameras monitor the entrance into the church from all doors. There are multiple interior cameras: Narthex (sanctuary entry), Vaughan Room, the main entrance for McSpadden Fellowship Hall, and the McSpadden Fellowship Hall. The cameras are activated by motion detection and record audio. The media team will monitor the cameras during Sunday morning worship services. The only individuals whom the Session has granted access to the camera footage include the Safety Team (Jon McCalmont, chair, and Clayton Massey) and the minister, Rev. Carson.
